

DISCLAIMER IN PATENT UNDER 37 CFR 1.321(a)
Name of Patentees Schering Corporation Dendreon Corporation	Docket Number 1159K1
Patent Number 7,244,721	Date Patent Issued July 17, 2007
Title of Invention PEPTIDES AS NS3-SERINE PROTEASE INHIBITORS OF HEPATITIS C VIRUS

Schering Corporation, a corporation and Dendreon Corporation, a corporation, state together they are the assignees of the entire right, title and interest in the patent identified above by virtue of a chain of title from the inventors to the current assignees. Accompanying this disclaimer is a Statement under 37 CFR 3.73(b), for the above-identified patent, establishing the right of the assignees to take action.

We hereby disclaim the following complete claims in the above identified patent: claims 1-10, 12-23, 25-46, 50, 52, 54-60 and 62-65.

The Director is hereby authorized to charge any fees which may be required or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 13-2755.

Schering Corporation:

The undersigned, whose title is supplied below, is authorized by Merck & Co., Inc. to act on behalf of Schering Corporation pursuant to the attached General Corporate Resolution No. 5, dated February 22, 2011. Schering Corporation is a subsidiary of Merck & Co., Inc. Attached is a copy of Exhibit 21 from the Merck & Co., Inc. 10K Annual Report, filed February 21, 2011, listing different Merck & Co., Inc. subsidiaries, including Schering Corporation. The copy of Exhibit 21 was obtained from Merck & Co., Inc.'s on-line SEC filing.

Sheldon O. Heber
Sheldon O. Heber

Date: 6/6/2011

Managing Counsel-Patents
Merck & Co., Inc.
126 East Lincoln Avenue
Rahway NJ, 07065

Patent No. 7,244,721
Docket No. 1159K1

Dendreon Corporation

The undersigned, whose title is supplied below, is authorized to act on behalf of Dendreon Corporation.

Kevin Helmbacher

Date: 5/16/11

Chief Patent Counsel
Dendreon Corporation
3005 First Avenue
Seattle, WA 98121